The Bertha Apartment House at 16 West 125th Street Figures in a Deal-A Block of Ten Two Family Private Houses to Be Erected in The Bronx.

Barely half a score of transactions in Manhattan and The Bronx were made public yesterday, and these, in a majority cases, affected the cheaper grades of flats and tenements. A rumor that a modern office building on Fifth avenue had been purchased by a firm owning adjoining property, was declared to be without foundation. Some activity in new construction work in The Bronx was evidenced by the plans filed with the Building Department. Twenty-three one and two story dwellings for that borough were projected, involving a total cost of $112,000. No plans for new buildings in Manhattan went on record. No business was done in the auction room.

125TH STREET.—Philip Jeselson has sold for Adolph Riesenberg, Erduin von der Host Koch and William T. Koch to John H. Degelman the Bertha, at No. 16 West 125th street, a five story apartment house, with stores, on plot 37.6 x 100.11.

Frederick Fox & Co. have leased for H. C. Hallenbeck the store, basement and five lofts in the mercantile building at Nos. 34 and 68 East Eleventh street, and have leased for Heilner & Wolf and Mathew C. The firm of Nichols & Lummis has been dissolved by mutual consent. Romaine C. Nichols will open a real estate office at 353 Fifth avenue. Benjamin R. Lummis will continue business at the present address, 28 West Thirty-third street.

The real estate firm of Mann & Samuel has been dissolved. Lawrence M. Samuel has formed a connection with the downtown office of F. R. Wood & Co. at 141 Broadway.

town office of F. R. Wood & Co. at 141 Broadway.

Plans have been filed with Building Superintendent Murphy for remodelling the two story stable at the southwest corner of Gramercy Park and Irving place into a squash court for the Columbia University Club, whose clubhouse it adjoins. It will contain two courts and furnishings. The improvements are to cost $1,500, according to the estimate of the architect, Henry C. Pelton.

Plans have also been filed for remodelling the three story and basement tenement house at the northeast corner of Second avenue and Sixty-second street, now accommodating five families, into a two family dwelling, with a store in the hasement. This proposed reduction of tenant occupancy is unusual in a tenement house neighborhood. The improvements are to be made at a nominal cost for John Bozzuffl as owner.

The Bronx plans for new buildings comprise ten two story dwellings to be built for Paul Rieling on Lincoln street, north of Barrett place, at a cost of $50,000; three two story dwellings for Herman Tuchman on Parker avenue north of Westchester avenue. No plans for new buildings were filed with the Manhattan bureau.
